First 5 Glenn County Has an Opening on its Commission for a Community Representative

(Glenn County) - First 5 Glenn County is currently looking for a community member to act as a community representative on its Commission. First 5 Glenn County is responsible for distributing the county's annual tobacco tax revenues to fund programs for children ages 0 to 5 and their families. The Commission's priorities include school readiness, child care and parent education to promote stronger families and communities.

"Serving on the First 5 Glenn County Commission is an opportunity to make a positive impact on the lives of our local children," said First 5 Glenn County Executive Director Joy Amaro. "The community representative will help make critical funding decisions, support local organizations and form partnerships with area programs."

Community members interested in applying to the Commission must submit a resume and letter of interest by Friday, June 30, 2007 to Joy Amaro, 310-C West Wood Street, Willows, CA 95988. For more information about First 5 Glenn County and becoming a Community Representative, call 934-6885 or visit www.glenncountyfirst5.com.

Research shows that a child's brain develops most dramatically in the first five years and what parents and caregivers do during these years to support their child's development will have a meaningful impact throughout life. Based on this research, California voters passed Proposition 10 in 1998, adding a 50 cents-per-pack tax on cigarettes to support programs for expectant parents and children ages 0 to 5. First 5 Glenn County invested approximately $430,000 in Prop. 10 revenues for programs and services last year.
